Societyof Tissue
Viability

SoTV Timeline

A little bit of history

2013

Kettering conference; corporate sponsorship began

2015

joint EWMA London - most successful EWMA conference to date in terms of delegate numbers, significant boost to Society's finances

York conference; WReN established; student membership introduced; National Wound Audit unstageable / upgradeable PU; Twitter and Facebook set up; scholarships/bursaries to attend EWMA and EPUAP introduced

2014

Cardiff conference; Safeguarding Adults Protocol – when PUs require a safeguarding enquiry in conjunction with Department of Health

2016

A little bit of history

2017

Edgbaston conference; updated Seating Guidelines published; Legs Matter coalition/campaign set up - won Urgo award

2019

Southampton conference; membership reached 600

Newcastle conference; changes to EUCOMED regulations led to new corporate sponsorship model

2018

joint virtual EWMA conference; Crisis Group set up; Covid 19; switch to online study days; Skin Care Champions programme set up; education endorsement started; strong upward trend in JTV submissions

A little bit of history

2021

virtual conference; rebrand; educational programme facilitator and Skin Care Champion facilitator; Alumni set up; collaboration with ISTAP 2023

Peterborough conference – streamlined programme and new workshops; membership reached 1000; Dan Bader memorial award

2025

JTV becomes gold Open Access

Glasgow conference; new brand launched, Active Associates and Associate Forum launched; online study days revised format

2022

joint EWMA London

