

Society
of Tissue
Viability

Annual Conference Programme

Solving skin and wound challenges together

Peterborough
26-27 April, 2023

societyoftissueviability.org

MAIN CONFERENCE
WEDNESDAY 26TH APRIL

View our programmes, speakers, abstracts and session objectives.

26/04

Location Carmichael Suite, 1 st Floor				Location Spurgeon Room, Ground Floor				Location Seymour Suite, Ground Floor
Time	Theme	Session	Speaker(s)	Time	Theme	Session	Speaker(s)	Time	Theme	Session	Speaker(s)
08.00 – 09.00	Moderator: Sarah Gardner	Scientific Breakfast Symposium sponsored by Urgo Implementing NICE guidance – Real life examples of delivering gold standard care	Dr Leanne Atkin and Joy Tickle	No Sessions				No Sessions
09.15 – 09.35	Chair: Dr Jeannie Donnelly	Introduction to the Conference	Dr Jeannie Donnelly
09.35 – 09.55		The National Wound Care Strategy programme for England	Dr Una Adderley
09.55 – 10.15		A strategic approach to wound care	Margaret Kitching MBE
10.15 – 11.00 Break and opportunity for exhibition viewing
11.00 – 11.22	Applying the evidence to pressure ulcer prevention & management Chair: Jo Swan	PURPOSE-T use in clinical practice: A realist evaluation	Dr Susanne Coleman	11.00 – 11.30	Evidence based practice Chair: Connie Traynor	Evidence based practice? Impact of NIHR wounds research on clinical practice and summary of the current portfolio	Professor Jane Nixon	11.00 – 12.30	Workshop	Advanced lower limb management – an interactive workshop sponsored by L&R	Georgina Ritchie, Gabriela Korn and Fran Worboys
11.22 – 11.45		The pressure ulcer prevention at home study – a participatory approach	Delia Muir	11.30 – 12.00		Pilonidal sinus treatment: Outcomes and future priorities	Mr Matthew Lee
11.45 – 12.07		Effectiveness of surgical reconstruction to treat full-skin thickness pressure ulcers: evidence and feasibility of research	Professor Barnaby Reeves	12.00 – 12.30		Interviews with Tissue Viability Nurses about their perceptions of how we use devices for the prevention of heel pressure ulcers in acute care	Dr Clare Greenwood
12.07 – 12.30		Surgical intervention for pressure ulcer management	Claire Porter
12.30 – 14.00 Lunch and opportunity for exhibition viewing
14.00 – 15.00	Putting the patient first: Does patient centredness improve outcomes? Chair: Gill Sykes	How do we make patient-centred care a reality and how do we measure the outcomes?	Dr Victoria Clemett, Professor Patricia Grocott and Dr Jemell Geraghty	14.00 – 15.00	Free papers Chair: Dr Peter Worsley	Dr Victoria Clemett - What influences inclusion of skin tone diversity when teaching skin assessment? Findings from an online survey of nurse educators in practice and universities Elaine Flaherty and Joseph Montgomery - Quality Improvement through dressings optimisation Dr Liang Liu - There should be proper training': Healthcare Support Workers reflect on their experiences of and roles in pressure ulcer prevention – A qualitative exploratory study Sharon Neill and Associate Professor Christina Parker - Healthcare students' experiences of a Collaborative Online International Learning initiative on wound care and interprofessional education: an exploratory study		14.00 – 15.00	Workshop	Vascular assessment workshop sponsored by Huntleigh Healthcare	Annie Clothier and Ina Farrelly
15.00 – 15.45 Break and opportunity for exhibition viewing
15.45 – 16.15	Limb preservation: A multidisciplinary approach following complex lower limb trauma Chair: Sarah Gardner	Traumatic lower limb degloving injury – the role of the Surgeon	Mr Sanjib Majumder	15.45 – 16.15	Evidence based practice Chair: Fran Norman	Technologies for the early detection and prevention of pressure ulcers	Dr Peter Worsley	15.45 – 17.15	Workshop	Debridement workshop sponsored by Coloplast	Joanna Swan, Gill Sykes and Ayesha Marshall
16.15 – 16.45		Post-op considerations: the role of the Clinical Nurse Specialist	Emma Readman	16.15 – 16.45		Preventing chronic leg ulcers following excision of cancer on the lower limb: HEALS and HEALS 2	Dr Elizabeth McGinnis
16.45 – 17.15		How deep is your deglove? The physical and psychological impact of a traumatic injury	Evie Jones	16.45 – 17.15		Current challenges in prevention and treatment of IAD	Dr Sue Woodward
Close

MAIN CONFERENCE
THURSDAY 27TH APRIL

View our programmes, speakers, abstracts
and session objectives.

27/04

Location Carmichael Suite, 1 st Floor				Location Spurgeon Room, Ground Floor				Location Seymour Suite, Ground Floor
Time	Theme	Session	Speaker(s)	Time	Theme	Session	Speaker(s)	Time	Theme	Session	Speaker(s)
08.00 – 09.00	Moderator: Fran Norman	Scientific Breakfast Symposium sponsored by 3M Addressing the skin integrity challenges of today	Jacqui Fletcher OBE and Robert Gannon	No Sessions				No Sessions
09.15 – 09.30	Lower limb ulceration: it's more than just a wound Chair: Ina Farrelly	Where's the harm in that? A new focus from Legs Matter	Sarah Gardner	09.15 – 10.45	Fundamentals of wound care Chair: Sharon Neill	The skin • Anatomy and physiology of the skin • Functions of the skin • Risk factors for skin breakdown • Skin assessment	Dr Jeannie Donnelly	09.15 – 10.45	Workshop	Debridement workshop sponsored by Coloplast	Joanna Swan, Gill Sykes and Ayesha Marshall
09.30 – 9.55		Anatomy and physiology of venous and arterial disease – what you really need to know	Dr Leanne Atkin
9.55 – 10.20		WIFI – A common language in lower limb vascular assessment	Joanne Casey
10.20 – 10.45		Predicting venous leg ulcer healing	Associate Professor Christina Parker
10.45 – 11.30 Break and opportunity for exhibition viewing
11.30 – 12.00	Putting a spotlight on surgical wounds: the reality of post op SSI Chair: Dr Clare Greenwood	Update on the surgical stream for NWCSP – current position and what we can do to improve it	Jacky Edwards	11.30 – 13.00	Fundamentals of wound care Chair: Sharon Neill	Wound assessment • Normal wound healing • Wound assessment and care planning • Factors within the wound bed that affect healing • Choosing the right dressing	Paul Hardy	11.30 – 13.00	Workshop	AAAdvanced lower limb management – an interactive workshop sponsored by L&R	Georgina Ritchie, Gabriela Korn and Fran Worboys
12.00 – 12.30		New approaches to surgical site infection and cutaneous perfusion imaging using infrared thermography	Professor Charmaine Childs
12.30 – 13.00		Reducing SSI in colorectal surgery	Professor Thomas Pinkney
13.00 – 14.30 Lunch and opportunity for exhibition viewing
14.30 – 14.50	It's not just for geeks: How digital technology can help us all! Chair: Kate Williams	The opportunities of improved wound care data to support wound care	Mike Watson	14.30 – 16.00	Fundamentals of wound care Chair: Sharon Neill	Healthy legs and feet • Keeping feet healthy – hints and tips • Recognising lower limb problems • Hints and tips for healthy legs	Dr Natasha Levy	14.00 – 15.00	Workshop	Vascular assessment workshop sponsored by Huntleigh Healthcare	Annie Clothier and Ina Farrelly
14.50 – 15.10		Using a digital wound management system to improve outcomes for people with deteriorating wounds	Mr Mike Oliver
15.10 – 15.30		Surgical Site Infection surveillance: Time for a new agenda?	Melissa Rochon
15.30 – 16.00	Personal well-being: be kind to yourself Chair: Samantha Rooney	Recognising super helper syndrome: Strategies for coping with the impact of a caring role	Jess Baker	No Sessions
16.00	Close	Dr Jeannie Donnelly									